200 Area Remediation Ecological Risk Assessments (J. Price/B. Foley)

Ecology stated that they would be returning to the U.S. Department of Energy, Richland Operations Office (RL) the revised primary documents submitted for Tri-Party Agreement Major Milestone M-013-00, Tanks/Lines/Pits/Boxes/Septic Tank and Drain Field Waste Group Operable Units Remedial Investigation/Feasibility Study Work Plan and PCRA TSD Unit Sampling Plan; Tri-Party Agreement Interim Milestone M-025-38A, Feasibility Study for the 200-CW-1 and 200-CW-3 Operable Units and the 200 North Area Waste Sites; and, Tri-Party Agreement Interim Milestone M-015-41B, Remedial Investigation Report for the 200-TW-1 and 200-TW-2 Operable Units, because of document deficiencies. Ecology is concerned that this may initiate the dispute resolution process.

Ecology stated that the documents submitted would need to be re-edited to address some of the concerns raised in previous reviews; revise the write-up of ecological data and reconsider the ecological data needs; and, incorporate the "risk framework" included in the Tri-Party Agreement response to Hanford Advisory Board Advice #132. Further, a final record of decision (ROD) must have a complete RI/FS including the complete ecological evaluation and not "post completion" evaluations. Ecology asserts that RL is required to submit a sampling plan (or plans) for biological sampling for any RI/FS work plan submitted and that there is a need to do some biological sampling to meet the regulatory requirement to characterize the current and potential threats to the environment. RL stated that for the Tri-Party Agreement milestones currently on the books were developed under the assumption that ecological sampling would not be required. Initially, the program was based on obtaining Interim RODs. During the Central Plateau negotiations conducted in CY 2001, RL moved away from the use of interim RODs to final RODs. Final RODs require final RI/FS so ecological sampling and data collection could not take place after the final is complete.

Additional discussions need to take place on the status of the 3 primary documents already submitted (and the one scheduled to be submitted May 31, 2003, Tri-Party Agreement Interim Milestone M-015-40B, 200-CW-5 U-Pond/Z Ditches....). Ecology was not amenable to providing conditional approval.

Action: Meet and generate a strategy and schedule identifying any impacts to existing workscope.
